Who Are You?

20-05-2012

Who are you?

The tree or the forest, the day or the night, the moon or the sun, easing from dawn until dusk.

The meaning behind music, the object of prayer, or the breathe of sweet newborns.

The cry of anguish, the shadow of despair, the jewel of the crown, or that which the crown sits upon.

The whisper of hope, the killer of dreams;

You are the great

Poems about life

From Where You are

14-05-2012

From where you are,
To Where you will be,
To how i am, to how i will be,
From what you see,
To what you learn,
You will always be,
the one you are.
